

Contents

	page
Executive Summary	1
Introduction	1
Why people get involved	2
Why people not more involved	2
Eight major types of civic engagement activity	3
Definition and measures of civic engagement	3
Summary and description of the eight major types	4
Seven engagement groups categorized by civic engagement activity: list	5
Tables 1 & 2: summary of profiles	6
Profile of Illinois: The seven engagement groups: detailed	8
Differences in involvement by race, gender, age, education, employment, region, and political party	10
Employers have impact on civic engagement	11
So what? Addressing the three sectors with 68 recommendations to stimulate civic engagement	11
Toward the future: Keep up with two Web sites	12
About the Illinois Civic Engagement Project	13
Summary	13
Recommendations: 68 way we can make a difference in our communities	15
6 actions steps that work for everyone	16
10 things individuals can do	17
10 things leaders can do	19
8 things places of worship should encourage	21
10 things people in the business/private sector can do	23
10 things people in the public/government sector can do	26
9 things people in the nonprofit/independent sector can do	28
5 ways the three major sectors can collaborate	30
Detailed report
Acknowledgments	35
Background on Social Capital and Civic Engagement in the United States	37
The State of Civic Engagement in Illinois	39
Section I: Civic Engagement Activities	39
Activity: Community Involvement	40
General community activism and interest	40
Community involvement in the last five years	40
Community involvement of respondent households	42
Recruitment in the past year	43
Specific community involvement activities	44

Volunteering	44
Memberships	46
Neighborhood/community group activities	48
Official local board/council activities	48
Two selected household activities	49
Community town meetings	49
Overall community involvement measure	49
Activity: Religious Activities	51
Membership and attendance at religious Services	51
Other activities	51
Overall religious activity measure	51
Activity: Contribution Activities (secular)	52
Humanitarian contributions	52
Public radio/television contributions	53
Overall contribution activity measure	53
Activity: Political Activities	54
Voting activity	54
Partisan and campaign-related activities	54
Interest group-related activities	54
Contact with public officials and media	55
Official local government activities	55
Petition-related activity	55
Protest activity	55
Running for public office	55
Overall political activity measure	55
Activity: Discussion of Politics and Current Events	57
Overall measure of discussion of politics and current events	58
Section I: Civic Engagement Activities (continued)
Activity: News Exposure	58
Exposure to traditional media sources	58
Exposure to talk and call-in shows	59
Frequency watch C-SPAN	59
Overall measure of News Exposure	59
Activity: Technology-Based Activities	60
Interacting with others	61
Information-seeking activity	61
Overall measure of technology-based activity	63
Activity: Informal Socializing	63
Overall level of informal socializing measure	63
Overall Civic Engagement: A Measure	64

Section II: Motivations and Barriers to Civic Engagement	67
Why participants have been involved	67
Why people are not more involved	70
What would get people more involved in their communities?	74
Section III: The Seven Civic Engagement Types of People	76
Civic Leaders: broadly and highly engaged	79
Community Activists: politically engaged	81
Faith-based Activists: religiously engaged	82
Cyber-Activists: technologically engaged	84
Informal Socializers: informally engaged	85
Informed Contributors: passively engaged	87
The Relatively Disengaged	88
Section IV: The Impact of Employers on Civic Engagement	100
Section V: The Community and Civic Engagement	102
The relationship between community attitudes and civic engagement	102
Analysis of community attitudes by region of the state	106
Section VI: Selected Demographic Groups and Civic Engagement	114
Does civic engagement differ by geographic region?	114
Does civic engagement differ by urban/rural areas?	114
Do men and women differ in civic engagement?	115
Do age groups differ in civic engagement?	115
Do racial/ethnic groups differ in civic engagement?	116
Does education make a difference in civic engagement?	116
Does income make a difference for civic engagement?	117
Does owning a home make a difference for civic engagement?	117
Does marital status make a difference for civic engagement?	117
Does having children make a difference for civic engagement?	118
Does having a job make a difference for civic engagement?	118
Does civic engagement differ by political party?	119
Methodology of the Study	120
Strengths and Limitations of the Study	122
Illinois Civic Engagement Project Steering Committee	136
Illinois Civic Engagement Project Steering Staff	137